Tools & Best Practices for School Participatory Budgeting

A 4-day hands-on training for educators and youth workers

Krakow, Poland | October 7–10, 2025

Practical skills, international networking, and the charm of Krakow's Old Town-all in one training.

What is it?

Join a 4-day international training focused on practical tools and effective methodologies for implementing School Participatory Budgeting (School PB) The course will explore how School PB can enhance civic engagement and democratic competencies among students. Participants will gain handson experience, share best practices, and develop strategies to implement School PB in their schools and communities.

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

OCTOBER 7–10, 2025

- October 7 Arrival in Krakow, Meet & Greet, Welcome Dinner
- October 8 Workshop Day 1
- October 9 Workshop Day 2
- October 10 Morning Workshop (Half Day), Goodbye Lunch, Departure

KRAKOW, POLAND

The training will take place in the vibrant city of Krakow. Participants will be accommodated in a centrally located hotel, staying in twin rooms within walking distance of the historic Old Town and training venue.

WHEN?

WHERE?

HOW MUCH?

COST OF PARTICPATION

The training is FREE of charge. It includes:

- Full board accommodation in twin rooms
- Breakfast, lunch, dinner, and coffee breaks throughout the training

Travel Reimbursement

Each participant will receive reimbursement for travel costs up to the following limits: Spain: €350; Bulgaria €300; Italy €300; Poland: €100

An immersive training experience in Krakow's bustling Old Town

Who is it for?

This training is designed for educators, teachers and youth workers who operate in school environments and are passionate about promoting civic participation among children and youth.

20 participants will join from Poland, Bulgaria, Italy and Spain.

Who is behind this training?

ABOUT THE ORGANISER

SocLab Foundation is a leading Polish organization in School Participatory Budgeting (SPB). Since 2020, it has supported over 20,000 students and educators in 50+ schools. promoting civic engagement and democratic SocLab decision-making. offers training, facilitation, and evaluation, making SPB processes effective and sustainable. Its work has led to the wider adoption of SPB in Polish and cities. while towns also contributing to European networks and resources on youth participation.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

This training is part of the ERASMUS+ project called "School Participatory Budget – a tool to foster school democracy". It aims to provide both youth and educators with practical tools for meaningful democratic decision-making.

The project is co-funded by the European Union.

PARTERING ORGANISATIONS

- Fundacja Pole Dialogu (Field of Dialogue Foundation) project leader, Poland
- SocLab Foundation Poland
- BiPart Impresa Sociale, Italy
- Consejería de Educación, Formación Profesional y Universidades, Spain
- The Small Steps Foundation, Bulgaria

Get In Touch

SocLab Foundation soclab@soclab.org.pl

Laboratorium Badań i Działań Społecznych

Co-funded by the European Union

